D. O. No. 18/06/2011-NCPCR-(PD) / 20205

Date: September 19, 2011

Sub: Review of implementation of the functioning of the Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of children) Act 200 and the Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS)

Dear Sandeep,

The National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) has been impleaded by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in one of its matters (Sampurna Behrua Vs UOI & others (WP(Civil) No. 473/2005) on implementation of Juvenile Justice in the country. This is one of the mandates of the Commission. In this regard the NCPCR has been providing State wise data and information on the functioning of the JJ system to the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

2. In the meantime it has been noted by the Joint Secretary, Ministry of Women & Child Development during her visit to the State of Bihar in the month of July 2011 that the term of most of the JJB has expired more than two months i.e. April- May and hence the JJBs are not functional in the State. It has also been noted that the State and the District Child Protection Societies have still not become functional and therefore the implementation of ICPS cannot begin.

3. This has been communicated to the NCPCR. vide D.O number 14.4/2009-CW-II from the Ministry of Women & Child Development with a request to review the functioning of these structures and the standards of care in services for the children in need of care & protection and in conflict with the law.

4. You are hereby requested to look into the matter and inform NCPCR with the action taken in this regard by your department. The report of the visit of the Joint Secretary is enclosed for your ready reference.

With regards!

Yours sincerely
