Dear

Subject: Constitution of the State Commission for Protection of Child Rights

I am writing this letter to draw your kind attention on the constitution of the State Commission for Protection of Child Rights, in continuation to the constitution of the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) under the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights Act, 2005 (4 of 2006).

The NCPCR would like to know from your office if a State Commission for Protection of Child Rights has been constituted. If it has been constituted, would your office kindly facilitate furnishing of the following details:

1. Composition of the commission – name of the chairperson and members
2. Contact details of the chairperson, members and the commission
3. Number and nature of cases that have been processed in the commission
4. Policy work that the commission has undertaken and any other activity that you deem it necessary to share with us.

In the event of the State Commission for Protection of Child Rights (SCPCR) not being in place, may we urge you to constitute the same as soon as possible so that we have all the SCPCRs functioning across the length and breadth of India in the best interest of children.

With

Yours sincerely,

Sd/-
(Shantha Sinha)
