NCPCR’s Guidelines on Training Programs on Child Rights Issues

1. Introduction:

   The NCPCR has been constituted in accordance with provisions of the Commission for Protection of Child Rights Act, 2005. Section 13 of the Act lays down the functions to be performed by the Commission. As per sub-section 13(h), the Commission is mandated “Spread Child Rights among various sections of the society and promote awareness of the safeguards available for protection of these rights through publications, the media, seminars and other available means”. Accordingly, it has been decided to conduct training program in various States/UTs.

2. Focus Areas:

   a. Child Rights
   b. Right To Education
   c. Juvenile Justice
   d. Street Children
   e. POCSO
   f. Any others are to be decided by the Commission.

3. Focus target groups: The Commission seeking to create child rights awareness among public at large, seeks to target the following groups of people for sensitization on child rights issues:

   a. CWCs
   b. Police officials
   c. Prison officials
   d. Government functionaries
   e. Students/ Teachers/ SMCs
   f. Panchayati Raj officials

4. Duration of the Training Program: one day workshops.

5. Collaborative organizations: NCPCR will conduct these trainings in collaboration with SCPCRs and State Government.
6. Number of participants: Ideally, number of participants should be restricted to 100 to make it more effective interactive, meaningful and result oriented.

7. Budget for organizing the training program:
