

CAMP/BENCH REPORT

HAZARIBAGHH, JHARKHAND
26th JULY, 2019

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR PROTECTION OF CHILD RIGHTS
NEW DELHI

Working Report

INTRODUCTION

The National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) organised its bench/camp at Hazaribagh district of Jharkhand on July 26, 2019. The bench/camp presided by Shri Yashwant Jain, Honourable Chairperson, NCPCR along and Dr. Bhuvnesh Pratap Singh, IAS, Deputy Commissioner, Hazaribagh. All officials, volunteers, petitioners, children, families were present during the bench.

PRE- BENCH PREPARATION

A detailed Guidelines for the procedures of and the participation before Bench of NCPCR for taking complaints pertaining to the violation of child rights was developed and was communicated to the District Collector, Hazaribagh. The Stakeholders Non-Governmental Organization were also communicated through e-mail, tele-calls by the Commission. Formal letters to all the concerned Department of the District as well as to the NGOs were also sent. Two joint video conferencing by NCPCR team at Delhi Head quarters with officials of Hazaribagh District was done regarding the preparatory work before the NCPCR Bench/Camp. The last VC was held on 23rd July 2019 before the advance team of consultants started started for Hazaribagh.

The team of consultants from NCPCR reached Hazaribagh a day in advance to assist the district administration for ensuring necessary arrangements and successful execution of the Bench. The Team met with Dr. Bhuvnesh Pratap Singh, IAS, Deputy Commissioner, Hazaribagh and his team from Hazaribagh District Administration on the 25th July 2019 prior to the Camp. The team was briefed by the Commission about the Camp and the